...then you may be able to receive a monthly box of food from the Commodity Supplemental Food Program!

What is in the monthly box?

Box contents will vary each month but will contain shelf-stable items to make complete meals including: milk products, juices, proteins, cereals, peanut butter or dry beans, grains, canned vegetables, and canned fruits. Each box also comes with a block of cheese.

What is required to receive a box?

There is absolutely no cost to be enrolled in this program. Individuals must fill out an application and be accepted to the Commodity Supplemental Food Program. Individuals may only receive a monthly CSFP box from one location. When you apply, you'll need to provide: (1) Picture Identification, (2) Proof of Age, and (3) Verification of Your Address.

What if I cannot pick up my own box every month?

Individuals may appoint up to two people to pick-up their box in case they cannot make it to the pick-up date/location. Home care organizations, case managers, friends, family members, neighbors, etc. may serve as an assigned proxy.
